Dedication

To the late Mr. Kefauver – educational leader, inspired teacher, and devoted friend – the Class of 1951 respectfully and gratefully inscribes its book of memories. It seems particularly fitting that we dedicate our book to one who dedicated his life to us.

Administration

From our administrators—Dr. E. D. Jarvis, who has been Superintendent for three and one-half years, and R. E. Kessler, who has resigned after twenty-three years as Principal to accept the new position of Director of Business Affairs for the Bexley schools—comes this greeting and message to our school community:

"The idea that education goes on for life is a relatively new conception of learning. True, formal teaching ceases after high school and college. But if formal education has served its greatest purpose people will use the reasoning and reasonable approach to a solution for their own and society's problems, instead of using prejudiced, pre-determined and emotional reactions as a basis for reaching decisions. Besides being the only safe way to strengthen our way of life here in America this is, at the same time, a happy and satisfying method of solving life's problems.

"To seek knowledge, to use facts as a basis for opinion, to think things through, to persist until successful, to consider the importance of people over mere things—these are some of the devices to use in continued learning."

JUNIOR

The class of 1952 has worked industriously during the past school year.

For the first time in the history of Bexley High, the junior class sponsored the Homecoming dance. This dance, usually sponsored by the school publications, was a great success.

The juniors showed their interest in school affairs when they won the first Bexleo tax stamp drive of the year.

The Junior-Senior Prom is annually the largest project undertaken by the class. This year the prom was romantically set amidst the swaying palms, tropical flowers, and waterfalls of Hawaii. Music to fit this mood was furnished by Percy Lowry's orchestra.

Tom Hofheimer, president; Jack Bernlohr, vice-president; and Carol Hoffman, secretary-treasurer, were the class officers.

Because of the talent, ability, and leadership possessed by the members of the class of 1952, it is certain these students will make their future a good one.

SOPHOMORE

Geometry and Latin have not bogged down this year's sophomore class. Members of the group have worked hard during the year, with the result that they appear to compose one of the most entertaining classes in recent times at Bexley.

It is easy to find many individual sophomores willing to work to better the school. In addition, the class works together well. This is shown by the fact that the sophomores sponsored several dances throughout the year, as well as the fact that they constructed the prize-winning Homecoming float. These money-making projects will help them next year when they put on the prom.

Since success is partly attributed to good leadership, the class appears to have made a good choice in president, David Folkman; vice-president, Terry Meyer; and secretary-treasurer, Barbara Wasserstrom.

FRESHMAN

The promise of things yet to come has been shown by the members of the freshman class. Future leaders in school will be coming forth from this class. Presidents, captains, editors, members of student council and court, and active participants in all the staffs and clubs will all be molded from the wealth of talent and enthusiasm shown by the youngest and newest part of our student body.

From the three main contributors to our school's population we have gained 147 students. They all came in contact with our

Y-Teens

Y-Teens of 1951, under the guidance of Miss Trola McCurdy, have striven "to build a fellowship of girls" and to uphold the ideals of the Y. W. C. A., with which the club is affiliated. Ann Mawhinney, president, was assisted by Joan Levy, vice-president; Nancy Leftwich, secretary-treasurer; Mary Keys, treasurer; and twelve cabinet members.

At Christmas time the girls collected toys, which were added to the baskets for families sponsored by the Student Council. Carols were sung by club members in the school halls, at the Tuberculosis Hospital, and at the Home for the Aged.

The Devotions Committee took charge of the Annual Easter Watch Services conducted over the public-address system, and with the aid of the Choir, planned the Easter assembly. A style show was held in March, with spring fashions from the Union Company modeled by six club members. The Mother's Tea was served after a lovely picture-slide program on April 10. The girls' ensemble sang on this occasion. The traditional farewell party, given by the underclassmen honoring the departing seniors, closed the club year on May 16.

G. A. C.

Under the leadership of Miss Margaret Love, the Girls' Athletic Club sponsored all girls' sports activities, including basketball class night and hockey night at which Mary Bernlohr was crowned Sports' Queen.

The club opened a store in the girls' locker room to sell athletic equipment. The old point system was abolished, and a new awards system was inaugurated. On May 23 the GAC held its annual banquet at which awards were presented. New officers were installed in an impressive candlelight ceremony. Officers for this year were president, Jane Harrah; vice-president, Mary Bernlohr; secretary, Barbara Short; and treasurer, Barbara Hunt.

Future Teachers

With Ann Dillingham as president, the Future Teachers of America has had a busy year. The club, which had been composed of only seniors interested in teaching as a profession, was expanded to include juniors. F. T. A. has as an objective the guiding of its members as to the course to take and the fields to enter to make teaching more interesting and profitable to the individual. Vice-president for the year was Mary Bernlohr, while Sharon English was secretary-treasurer. Miss Marion Thomas served as faculty adviser.

Science Club

The Science Club is subdivided into the Biology, Chemistry, and Physics committees, on any of which groups its members may serve. Through the many and varied programs which have been presented by these committees the club has served to stimulate a wide interest in science.

Officers for this year were Jack Goldfarb, president; Dick Wolfe, vice-president; Eugene Perrin, secretary; and Marshall Glickman, treasurer. The adviser was Charles Hoel.

French Club

The program of the French Club was designed to increase interest and understanding in the customs and language of the French people. Included in this program were talks given by a French student from Ohio State and by a French teacher and author. A French play was produced by club members.

Officers of the year were Gloria Cohen, president; Jane Harrah, vice-president; Donna Metzger, secretary; Elise Schacht, treasurer; and Mary Keys, social chairman. Ralph M. Howell was faculty adviser.

Spanish Club

Everyone who takes Spanish is automatically in the Spanish Club. Each class has its own officers and holds its club meeting during one class period each month. Reports are given on Spanish customs, government, history, holidays, and religions. Some classes even sing Spanish songs. Several times during the year, outside speakers come to discuss various Spanish-speaking countries and each Christmas the clubs incorporate their efforts and send a donation to one of the orphan homes in this area. Miss Selma Hamann is the club adviser.

Latin Club

With Connie Krolczyk as president, the Latin Club has had a busy year. The club members sold greeting cards as their big money-making project. A profit of $95 was made. A Latin newspaper and membership in two national organizations, the Junior Classical League and the Latin Honor Society, are activities which were introduced just this year.

Vice-president for the '50-'51 year was Jane Harrah. Lynn Burns was secretary, and David Folkman, treasurer. Miss Mary Babcock served as adviser.

Hi-Y Club

This year's addition of the Hi-Y Club has gone a long way in living up to its purpose "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community the high standards of Christian character". Under the able leadership of its president, Bill Elder, the club held a paper drive to raise money for the advancement of foreign Hi-Y clubs. It also actively participated in the Cancer drive and sponsored a school dance. Monthly meetings were held, at which time many interesting and educational programs were presented.

Book Club

The Book Club under the guidance of Miss Gallogly successfully completed its second year of promoting "interest in and understanding of fiction and non-fiction literature." Club projects included a square dance and a field trip to the Ohio State Museum. Mrs. Ross B. Kefauver and Mrs. Jack E. Nida were guest book reviewers. Officers were Bill Elder, president; Jim Raymond, vice-president; and Bob Reddy, secretary-treasurer.

Dramatics Club

With the membership open to any interested junior or senior, the Dramatics Club experienced a successful year. The program committee, headed by Priscilla Elliot, arranged scenes from Macbeth and a Christmas skit which highlighted the year's activities.

Robert Schumann served as club adviser and the officers included Ann Dillingham, president; Joan Levy, vice-president; Barbara Short, secretary; and Ruth Kleinmaier, treasurer.

Music Club

Having as its purpose music appreciation and interest in the school, the Music Club has shown great promise since its organization last year. Highlights of the year included a talent show, a violinist from Capital University, songs by the Girls' Ensemble, and a special program by the advisers, C. Robert Myers and John Stanton.

Officers were Peggy Riggs, president; Perry Schwartz, vice-president; Maurita Merrill, secretary; and Frank Svatek, treasurer.

Art Club

With Ann Mawhinney as president, the Art Club finished another good year. Other officers were Jim Shockey, vice-president; Bob Reddy, treasurer; and Jean Southworth, secretary. During football season the club sold "Whoopees." The group went to Pittsburgh to see the International Art Exhibit at the Carnegie Museum of Art. Ralph Trivella, adviser, will take the club to Toledo to see another art exhibit in May.

Varsity B has now ended its fourth year of existence. The officers of this year's club were Perry Schwartz, president; Bill Price, vice-president; Tom Montague, secretary; and Tom Hofheimer, treasurer. Purpose of the Varsity B is to create more school spirit and to get more students to turn out for the games.

Camera and Horizon Clubs

This is the first year of the Camera Club under the guidance of Ralph Trivella. The purpose of this club is to give an opportunity to those who are interested to expand their photographic knowledge. The officers are Carl Slenk, president; Norman Felsenthal, vice-president; Larry Feitlinger, treasurer; and Bill Bettridge, secretary.

This year the Horizon Club held a city-wide meeting for the installation of officers and the acceptance of new members. The club featured a trip to Camp Wyandot as its main event. Many of the members worked at Red Cross headquarters.

For the '50-'51 year the officers were Joan Frankenberger, president; Betty Vance, vice-president; Marcia McCarty, secretary; and Nancy Leftwich, treasurer. Miss Selma Hamann served as advisor.

Activities

Band and Orchestra

Under the direction of John Stanton, the Concert Band and Orchestra have completed a very successful year. This was the first year that Bexley had an all-string orchestra. The group played for the Band Parents' Club, the Christmas Choral Concert, and Baccalaureate.

Bexley's Marching Band added greatly to the color of our football games with its good music and excellent formations (See picture on page 57).

After football season the Concert Band began its activities. The Annual Patrons' Concert, held April 20 in the high school auditorium, introduced the new Bexley Alma Mater. A combined Band and Chorus Concert was held May 28 at the Jeffrey Mansion.

Bexley band members entered the Ohio Educators' Contest for solos and ensembles. One entry from Bexley received a superior rating in the State Finals. The Bexley Band and Orchestra sent members to the Ohio Wesleyan University's Annual High School Music Festival, the Columbus All-City Band, and the South-Central Regional Orchestra Festival in Chillicothe.

The Annual Band Banquet was held April 27 at the Columbus Country Club.

Choir

The Bexley High School Choir consisting of 67 voices is furthering high school interest in good music. The Choir meets five times a week the fifth period, and this time is used entirely for singing. Membership in the Choir is on a selective basis, and boys and girls must have first sung in one of the glee clubs.

Under the direction of C. Robert Myers the Choir this year has presented two concerts, one at Christmas and one in the spring. They also sang at the Christmas assembly, the Y-Teens Easter Watch Service, and the Thanksgiving assembly.

The operetta "Down In The Valley" was presented May 3 and 4 in the high school auditorium. The cast included Louise Cotter and Annette Harms as Jenny, Brooke Gibson and Charles Wahoff in the role of Brack Weaver, and Dick Wolfe and Marshall Glickman in the part of the leader. Perry Schwartz, Bill Elder, and the choir filled the supporting roles. Under the direction of C. Robert Myers the operetta was a big success.

Girls' and Boys' Choral Groups

To understand, to appreciate, to learn more about music, and to act as a feeder group for the Choir—these are the purposes of the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs. Each organization meets separately two times a week and once in a combined group as the Chorus.

The Boys' and Girls' Ensembles are chosen from the Choir membership. Both of these groups consist of people with voices of high quality. There are eight voices in the Boys' Ensemble, and in the Girls' Ensemble there are nine.

All This and Heaven Too!

It was a "Heavenly" prom we, the Class of 1951, gave for last year's seniors. How true that statement is—the theme for the prom was none other than "Heaven." Our class worked hard many long nights before the big evening of May 3 to make the dance the success it proved to be.

The Printed Word

Torch

Keeping in mind "the Torch comes first," the many active members of this year's staff achieved another successful year. Under the able guidance of William Matthews and Ralph Howell, the Torch again gave you, the students, a complete account of school news.

The time has come to sign our final thirty and thank our editor for remaining calm at make-ups, for being a force behind us all, and most of all for her constant effort to uphold the name of the Torch.

We shall never forget—the first time we discovered the printer was on a one-way street—make-up lunches—long walks to the new Torch office—unprinted wit and our great headlines that would never count.

Not only do we leave a new staff, but a new paper. We wish the oncoming staff the best of luck; and may they experience the thrill we did looking at our paper.

Lives Forever

Bexleo

Hoping that the 1951 Bexleo proves successful to the students this year, Leo and his staff close the last pages on their book of memories. They reflect a moment over the work that was necessary for the publishing of the yearbook, and thoughts come to their minds of picture-taking—especially the last-minute snapshots—the completion of the final one-eighth page of advertising, the trips to both the printer and engraver, the writing of copy—which always had to be cut down—and the mounting of pictures.

But most important of all they recall the spirit of helpfulness, the hard work, and the guidance put into the book by their adviser, Ralph M. Howell. The staff points with pride to the twelfth Bexleo to be under his supervision, but sadly announces that it will also be his last. All the past editors, and especially this year's editor, Peggy Riggs, will vouch for Mr. Howell's tireless efforts during this and other past years.

Other members of the staff included Nancy Winters, associate editor; Sue Rowe, literary editor; Bob Grossman and Ann Mawhinney, art editors; Bob Bernlohr, boys' sports editor; Mary Bernlohr, girls' sports editor; Gloria Cohen, business manager; and Edwin Haering, advertising manager. Assistant editors were Nancy McNarney, Elise Schacht, Joan Dickinson, Ann Dillingham, Jane Harrah, Connie Krolczyk, Tom Bolon, Dick Kohls, Jim Wood, Christine Schumacher, and Ellen English.

The members of the staff hope that this yearbook will serve as a pleasant remembrance of their wonderful times at Bexley High School in 1951.

Quill and Scroll

Twelve members of the Torch and Bexleo staffs were awarded membership in the Quill and Scroll, international honorary journalistic society. The society stands for truth, loyalty, enlightenment, opportunity, initiative, leadership, and friendship. Its purpose is to encourage and reward individual achievement in journalism and allied fields.

To be eligible for membership, one must be in the upper third of his class, have done some superior work in some phase of journalism, and been recommended by an adviser of the publications.

National Honor Society

There is no greater honor conferred by Bexley High School than membership in the National Honor Society. The criteria of membership are character, scholarship, service, and leadership.

Members are selected from the upper third of the class in scholarship. No more than fifteen per cent of the senior class or five per cent of the junior class may be admitted. On March 30, ten seniors and six juniors were initiated into the society by the seven seniors elected in their junior year.

Student Court

In its second year of handling the more difficult disciplinary cases of the school, the Student Court has gained much experience which is so vital in conducting an organization of this type. The members of the Court, working under the leadership of Chief Justice Tom Fulton and with the help of Harold V. Tipton, faculty adviser, have done all in their power to uphold the prestige of this organization which holds as its purpose to correct troublesome students and build better school citizens.

Standing: Carol Newhouse, Jim Wood, Dick Mann, Janet Bez. Seated: Sharon English, Dick Wood, Joe Outhwaite.

Health Council

The Student Health Council launched itself notably this year by instituting the school's first towel system and helping further numerous campaigns. The council was introduced at an assembly with Dr. James Flaherty as guest speaker.

"To promote and maintain better health among the students and faculty" was the goal of President Dick Wood and the other officers, who were Joe Outwaite, vice-president; and Sharon English, secretary. Miss Love is the adviser.

Student Council

Under the leadership of Gordon Zacks the Student Council was able to complete its annual projects and to start on many new ones.

Homecoming and Open House activities were handled by the Council. Christmas baskets were filled by the homerooms and distributed to the needy families of Columbus, and a Christmas tree was purchased for the school.

Student Visitation day gave several members of the Council an opportunity to visit the classrooms of other schools. The Vocational Guidance program permitted juniors and seniors to hear professional people speak on various careers.

The New Year's Eve party at the Jeffrey Mansion proved to be so successful that it will become an annual affair. Student Administration day was a carry-over project from previous years.

International day brought young people from other nations to speak to the students on world peace. An honor roll plaque and a trophy case will be installed in the school this summer.

The Council sponsored an improved revision of Lion Life. This booklet contains valuable information on school activities and clubs. Other projects included a mock election of senators and representatives, the clean-up campaign, senior honor study hall, and a campaign for the preservation of library books.

Other officers of the 1950-'51 Council were vice-president, Perry Schwartz; secretary-treasurer, Peggy Riggs; and sergeant-at-arms, Jim Wood. These students were also officers of the school. Harold V. Tipton served as adviser.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The Bexleo staff expresses its thanks to Mr. Trivella for his keen interest in our publication and for his careful work with our staff artists in creating the cover design, the title page, and the divider page cartoons. We are grateful also to Dave Folkman for the amateur shots used in the book. Finally we sincerely thank the many unnamed persons—students and teachers alike—who worked unselfishly to help us achieve our goal of producing a book in keeping with the best Bexleo tradition.

Eat 'em up, Leo!

Sports

Sports Review

By Carlton Smith, Coach

The sports teams of 1950-1951 have failed to win a championship as of this date. However, we yet have hopes for the baseball and tennis teams. The basketball team was second and it looks as though the track and golf teams will fare likewise.

The football team at the start of the season was one of the best in Bexley history of the last decade. But injuries at the same time to five or six regulars were disastrous. We lost to Delaware and Arlington by large scores and also lost to Mt. Vernon after outplaying them most of the game. But the crippled team did win six out of nine games by sheer fight and determination for a marvelous record.

The basketball team started with an excellent record by winning seven straight league games and then for some inexplicable reason lost three in a row and the championship. We easily took second and played well in the district tournament. We feel that we should have finished in a tie for the championship with Grandview. A two-week lay-off without a game prior to our three loses may account for the slump at midseason.

The swimming team won their league and then lost to Grandview, winner of the other league, for the city championship. Individually, Andy Wallace won the State Championship for the 50-yard free style and took second in the State for the 100-yard free style. The team was outstanding but not champions.

The baseball team had few veterans returning, but to date have been surprising everyone by being undefeated in league play as well as undefeated for the season so far. They may well be our champions or co-champions.

The track team lost many veteran point winners but have several individual stars returning. They have a fine record of three wins and no defeats so far, but the team is not balanced enough to win the C. B. L. or other honors. We will have to be content with individual honors of some of our stars.

The tennis team has several lettermen back and will have an excellent record, but it looks as though they will finish second to Arlington in the league. The same can be said for golf as tennis—that is, an outstanding win and loss record but perhaps only second to Arlington in the league and perhaps third in the City League.

The reserve football team was very mediocre, but the reserve basketball team tied for the championship with Upper Arlington. That is at least one championship for 1950-1951.

All of our 1950-1951 teams have very fine records and we are proud of them, but those elusive championships have slipped away from us again. The morale and spirit of these seniors, however, will bear fruit in succeeding years. We predict some championships next year, and some of the credit should go to some of the boys who tried so hard and gave so much this year. If they are not here to share championships with us, we wish them luck in their future athletic endeavors.

Football Season - - 1950

The 1950 Bexley Lions, though hampered by injuries, finished the season with a record of six wins and three losses. The CBL record was not so good; for the three losses were sustained in league play.

Coach Carlton Smith said that this year's team was harder hit by injuries than any of his other twenty-eight teams. At one time, six out of eleven first stringers were out because of injuries.

In the opener of the 1950 campaign, the Lions trampled over St. Charles 20-6. Bexley held the upper hand all the way, scoring in the first three periods and then coasting to victory. Some good passing by Bill Legg opened the St. Charles defense, allowing Tom Montague to run freely over the field.

In the Greenfield McClain game, Tom Montague climaxed a 78-yard drive to score from the twenty. He also started the second half with an 80-yard run. Also sprinkled in was a Legg-to-Pat Aylwin pass, a 30-yard run by Justin Quecke, and a line buck by Dick Hutchinson. It was another "easy" victory that ended 34-14.

The game with Grandview was described by Coach Smith as the greatest comeback in his 29 years of coaching. The score was 19-0 Grandview until late in the third quarter, when Bill Legg pushed over from the eight. It remained 19-7 until six minutes in the last quarter, when a score by Dick Hutchinson and four minutes later a Legg-to-Montague touchdown pass tied it up at 19. The hero of the night then became Tom Bolon, as he kicked the extra point and the margin of victory, 20-19.

An undefeated Delaware team handed the Lions their first loss 40-6 in a hard-played game. Sophomore Terry Toth was Bexley's lone scorer. It was in this game that the injuries started hurting the team.

It was homecoming at Upper Arlington, and the battered and bruised Lions proved no match for the Golden Bears. All-American halfback Doug Goodsell scored three 6-pointers in the romp that ended 54-7.

Resuming their winning ways, the Bexley footballers, led by Tom Montague, Buck Quecke, and Terry Toth, dumped Urbana 25-6. It was our ball game all the way, even though many of the boys were not playing.

Still improving, the Lions looked better than Mt. Vernon, but the Yellow Jackets squeezed out a 14-13 victory. Highlights of the game were two long runs by Tom Montague. Bexley threatened to score three times in the final quarter, but could not quite push it over.

Traveling to Washington C. H., the Lions played in a freezing rain. It was a typical, sloppy game, with the lead changing three times. Touchdowns by Tom Montague and Dick Hutchinson led the way to the 12-7 win. Linden-McKinley just could not keep up with Bexley as a Dick Blake-to-Pat Aylwin pass on the first play of the game made the score 7-0. Slowly but surely the Lions rolled on to a 19-0 victory.

By using the two-platoon system, it was possible to have about eighteen men playing regularly. Six of the gridders were named on all-high teams.

The reserve squad, coached by Robert Ruffing, had a very successful season. Three members of the squad saw varsity action, and many more will play next year.

Basketball

The 1951 cage squad finished the season with a record of 13 wins and 7 losses. Looking very impressive in their first seven league games, the Lions lost their next three and were dumped into second place in the CBL.

In pre-Christmas games a 5-1 record was made. A convincing victory over Marion 50-39 was followed by one of the three City League defeats, this time to West, 55-48. Then came wins over Washington C. H., Academy, Worthington, and Urbana.

On January 2 the Lions traveled to Linden, but came out on the smaller end of the score, 57-39; and the same thing happened at North, 64-45. The cagers then awoke with a roar and took consecutive games from Arlington, 64-43; Delaware, 50-37; Mt. Vernon, 51-41; and Academy, 70-35. The downfall came when the Lions journeyed to Arlington and were upset 53-44. Delaware took the lesson and won 53-41, and Grandview followed suit with a 46-39 victory.

Finally on the uphill, the Lions fought hard and won over Urbana and Mt. Vernon, 54-50 and 52-48 respectively.

In the district tournament the Lions rolled over Rosary 61-31 before being eliminated by West 52-51 in an overtime game.

The team was composed of 6' 4" center, Pat Aylwin, with captain Bob Bernlohr and either Sanford Solomon or Chick Wahoff at the forwards, and Tom Montague and Bill Legg guards. Chick and Sanford alternated according to the defense used by the opposition.

Returning from last year's team were the three seniors and five-foot eight-inch Bill Legg. The scoring was evenly distributed throughout the team, with each starter being high-point man in at least one game. High scorer for the season was Bob Bernlohr with 259 points. Pat Aylwin was runner-up with 220 points.

The remainder of the team was made up of Dick Blake, Bill Price, and Dexter Strawther, seniors; Bob Stone, Howard Hirsch, Don Leeman, and captain-elect Jack Bernlohr.

Standing: Coach Swinehart, Gerwin, Myers, Thacker, Weiffenbach, Rose, Davis, Kime. Seated: Zachs, Boyd, Mueller, Gibson, Koltun, Swisher.

Reserve Basketball

The reserve team, led by Brooke Gibson, Jim Mueler, and Thornton Swisher and coached by Dana Swinehart, compiled a season's record of 13 wins and 5 losses. On the first team along with the three above were Jim Boyd and Bob Koltun. Also fighting for starting berths were Tom Davis, Gill Harris, Karl Weiffenbach, and Barry Zacks.

Baseball

Coach Ruffing's baseballers are undefeated to date this season and stand a fair chance of winning the C. B. L. Playing on the diamond squad are captain, Bernlohr; catcher, Thacker; pitchers, Aylwin and Oelgoetz; infield, J. Bernlohr, Purdy, Legg and Noetlich; and outfield, Hess, Leeman, Hofheimer, and Miller.

Standing: Toth, Haunty, Stock, Rose, Hainsworth, Thacker, Oelgoetz, Story, Barrett, Ware, Andrews. Seated: Coach Ruffing, Hofheimer, Miller, Leeman, Noetlich, B. Bernlohr, Purdy, Legg, J. Bernlohr, Hess.

Swimming

Coach Owen's swimming team piled up an enviable record of five victories to one loss. Led by Andy Wallace, winner of the 100-yard swim and runner-up in the 50 in the state meet, the sea Lions were second in the district. Other outstanding swimmers were captain Shields, captain-elect Hofheimer, and Hamer.

Track

Running away with their first few meets, the cindermen of coaches Owen and Swinehart are making their share of the headlines. Co-captain Montague has so far taken 20 points in every meet, and Isaac is scoring well too. Other impressive tracksters are Shockey, Barnett, Harrison, Owens, McCam, Solomon, and Stone.

Golf

Trying hard to better the 1950 record of 15 wins and 6 losses, coach Smith's golf team has so far compiled a record of 5 wins and 2 losses. The A team is composed of Dick Blake, first man; Chick Wahoff, second man; Gill Harris, third man; and Darrell Hutchinson, fourth man.

Tennis

Out for a piece of the championship, coach Duffey's tennis squad has started with a perfect record. In the first three matches, the score has been 5-0 each time. First man on the tennis ladder is captain Hanlon, second singles man is Souder, and third singles is Neustadt. Doubles players are Price and Weiler; Koltun and Hirsch.

Standing: Koltun, Myers, Hirsch, Glickman, Souder, Tarlton, Hanlon, Weiler, Price, Meuller, Weiler. Seated: Johnson, Outhwaite, Neustadt, Rush, Glickman.

Sports Heads

The extensive program of intramural sports organized each year is an integral part of the girls' physical education department. However, only through the fine, undying work of the sports heads are the tournaments able to be the success they are. The sports heads with the help and advice of Miss Margaret Love, girls' physical education director, plan the complete intramural program and keep accurate records of all tournaments played. The sports heads are appointed by the executive committee of GAC, the former sports heads, and Miss Love, and are announced at the annual GAC banquet.

The new awards system adopted by GAC to replace the former point system of awards emphasizes actual participation in intramural sports and services rendered to the intramural program.

Because of a great interest in modern and square dancing, which were inaugurated this year, clubs will be formed next year for all those who are interested. The clubs will be under the leadership of members of GAC, who have a keen interest in these phases of physical activities.

Sports heads for the activities this year were Winters, tennis; Petty, hockey; Short, riding; Sallee, badminton; English, basketball; Spohn, table tennis; Dillingham, swimming; Esper, volleyball; Hisey and Krolczyk, bowling; Metzger, baseball; Bernlohr, archery; and Jones and Levy, golf.

Hockey

The interscholastic A team completed the season with two wins and two ties, while the B team had three wins and one loss. Arlington and University were victims for the A team, while Grandview and Worthington emerged with scoreless ties. Only Grandview defeated the B team. A tie between juniors and seniors on class hockey night was eliminated when the juniors defeated the seniors to become school champions.

Tennis

Hopes for another undefeated season are high for the tennis team, with four of Miss Love's prodigies back again this year. Interscholastic matches both at home and away are scheduled each year with Arlington, Grandview, Worthington, and University. Winters, Harrah, Collins, Dillingham, Basch, Marcus, Neuman, Levy, Chapline, English, and Kilbourne will be strong contenders for the squad positions.

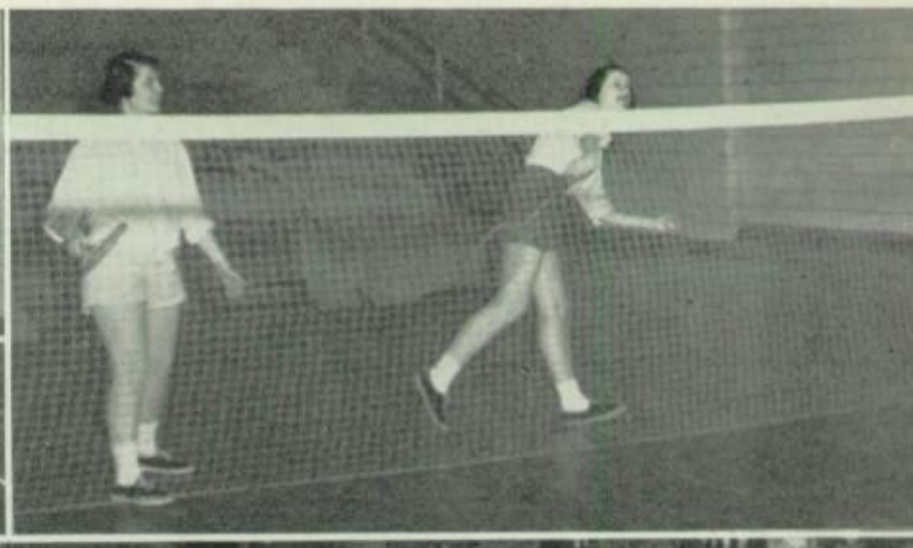
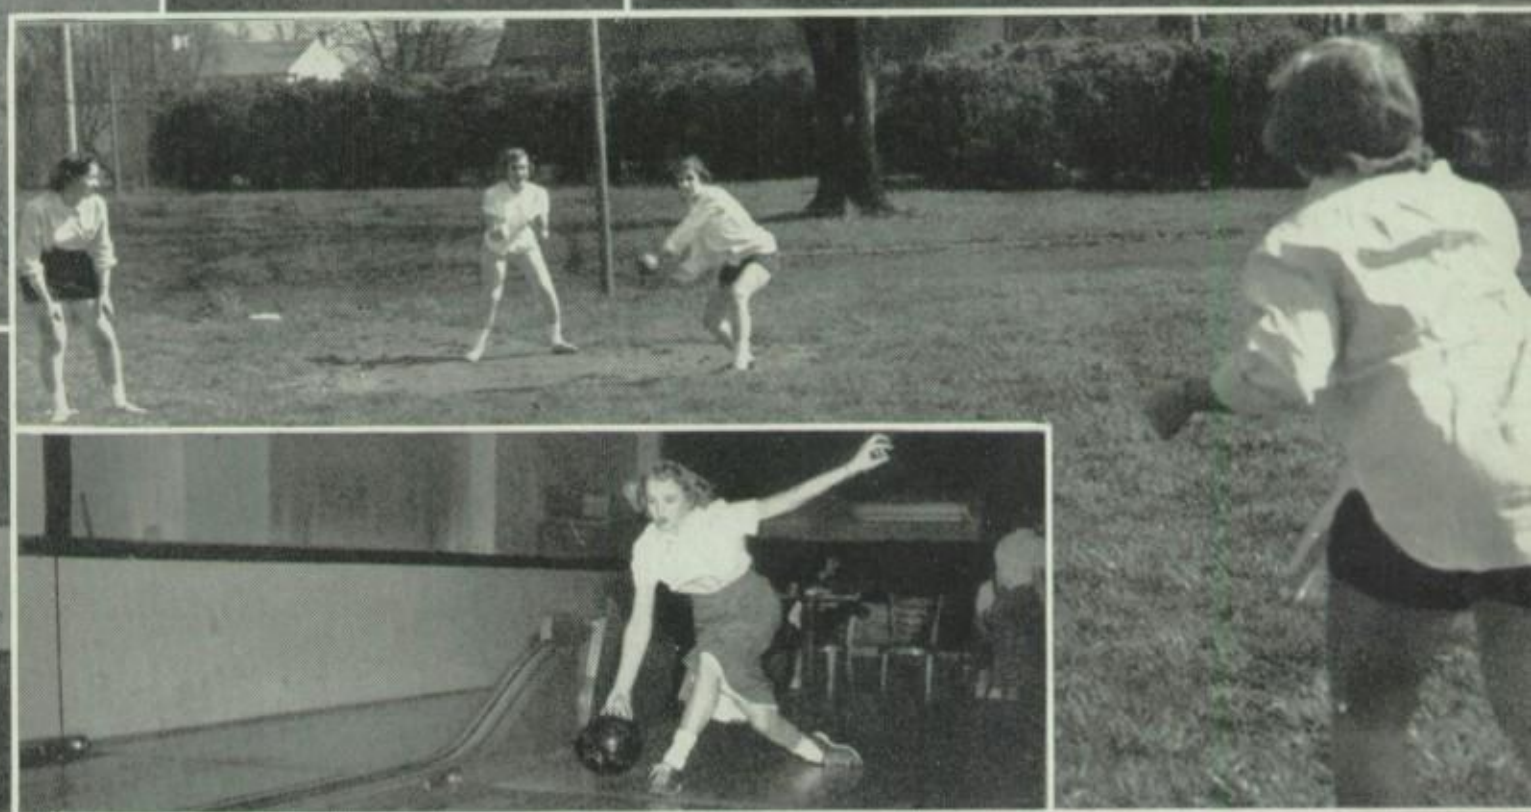
THE CHAMPS

Interscholastic basketball games were played with Arlington, Grandview, University, and Groveport. The juniors were victorious both in the intramural and the inter-class competition to bring them a total of three big championships.

Garbed in middy blouses and bloomers, the faculty defeated the seniors in the annual faculty-senior game.





This page is indicative of the varied program of girls' sports offered at Bexley. Shots by Dave Folkman.
